The bear books are really cute, but I don't care much for this one. Bear eats and eats and always wants more but the book doesn't address why. I know this is going to sound pretentious, but I feel like the book is just teaching kids to be gluttonous if they don't understand that he's hungry because he just came out of hibernation.

Bear Wants More is a picture book about a bear waking up from hibernating for the winter. When he wakes up he is so hungry, but his good friends make sure to give him a great "wake-up" meal. This book was very ironic because the bear wanted more food, but all of the bear's friends are animals that bears eat(the bear never eats them).
