Masters Degrees in Business & Management, Canada

We refer to a "masters degree" without apostrophe. As a broad rule of thumb, I would suggest that "Master of" refers to the person; the "Masters in" refers to the degree. E.g. "He has a Masters in History"; "He is a Master of History". But observe: "He holds a Masters degree in history"; "He holds a Master of History degree".

The correct way to spell master ' s degree is with the apostrophe. The s in master ' s indicates a possessive (the degree of a master), not a plural. If you ' re speaking of a specific degree, you should capitalize master and avoid creating a possessive: Master of Science. The same rules apply to a bachelor ' s degree.

America spends more than any other developed country on healthcare, and yet does not provide better health outcomes. Why is healthcare so expensive in America, and what is the solution to this out-of-control cost curve? Republicans and Democrats can't agree, and yet rational compromise is desperately needed. Perhaps the best solution to better healthcare in America lies between all this political hyperbole. In Purple Solutions, a collection of 20 experts have come together to share their thoughts and expertise on how to reform healthcare in America. Expert contributors include the former president of the AMA, policy and think tank leaders, healthcare executives, entrepreneurs looking to disrupt the current medical industrial complex, politicians, payers, providers and legal experts. The solution is in our hands as consumers and voters, not in the hands of big government or corporate medicine. Viable bipartisan solutions to healthcare reform are presented - we just need to change our mindset, and then convince our elected officials to compromise and work towards giving us better healthcare in America.
