"Beats The Silence of the Lambs for suspense—it's the kind of book that had me literally gasping aloud as it rattled to its incredible conclusion." —Cory Doctorow, New York Times bestselling author of Homeland What if the most terrifying person you know is your ten-year-old sister? Seventeen-year-old Aussie Che Taylor loves his younger sister, Rosa. But he ' s also certain that she ' s a psychopath—clinically, threateningly, dangerously. Recently Rosa has been making trouble, hurting things. Che is the only one who knows; he ' s the only one his sister trusts. Rosa is smart, talented, pretty, and very good at hiding what she is and the manipulation she ' s capable of. Their parents, whose business takes the family from place to place, brush off the warning signs as Rosa ' s " acting out. " Now that they have moved again—from Bangkok to New York City—their new hometown provides far too many opportunities for Rosa to play her increasingly complex and disturbing games. Che ' s always been Rosa ' s rock, protecting her from the world. Now, the world might need protection from her.

Allie Velasco wants to be a trailblazer. A trendsetter. A winner. No better feeling exists in the world than stepping to the top of a winner ' s podium and hoisting a trophy high in the air. At least, that ' s what Allie thinks . . . she ' s never actually won anything before. Everyone in her family is special in some way -- her younger sister is a rising TV star; her brother is a soccer prodigy; her great-grandfather is a Congressional Medal of Honor winner. With a family like this, Allie knows she has to make her mark or risk being left behind. She ' s determined to add a shiny medal, blue ribbon, or beautiful trophy to her family ' s award shelf. When a prestigious school contest is announced, Allie has the perfect opportunity to take first -- at last. There ' s just one small snag . . . her biggest competition is also her ex-best friend, Sara. Can Allie take top prize and win back a friend -- or is she destined to lose it all?
