But his new book, "The Art Of The Pimp," tells a different side of his love story and the legal sex trade. In it, Hof and his bunnies paint an honest and sometimes, critical picture of their time at the ranch and their lives leading up to legal prostitution. What, then, separates Hof from your average street pimp?

This was a surprisingly interesting book. He is a pimp and says it many times. His story is interesting , also stories of many of the girls that work for him. At times his life seems great , but in some parts of the stories you kinda feel sorry for him and the girls, both seem to be a tad broken. A good read, I recommend .
