Living without the answers. 5.20. 2008. God's answers to our questions may lead us to a deeper faith. Years ago I saw a poster with the following words: "For every difficult social problem, there is a simple answer ... and it's wrong!" I decided it was true: There are no simple, one-size-fits-all answers to difficult social problems.

Cutting the abdomen is bad, but leaving the living child to suffocate in her womb until he dies is a greater evil. So cutting becomes the lesser of two evils. Moreover, we say that in such cases, cutting is not regarded as mutilation or evil, so there is nothing to rule out extracting the foetus at all. And Allaah knows best. End quote.

"I live in B" has the verb "live" in the simple present. in "I am living in B" the same verb is in the continuous present. Categorizations aside, when it comes down to introducing yourself, the sentence you choose will depend upon how you see yourself with respect to B. "I live in B" carries the sense that B is your home, that you are based there.
