Read this excerpt from We Beat the Street. "If you're looking for the Seton Hall presentation, it's just beginning," the principal told them. She walked with the three boys to the library, then stood by the door, listening to the presentation herself for a few minutes. We're stuck, Sampson thought as the three of them found seats at a back table.

We had to fight drugs and crime and hopelessness. We had to overcome obstacles like poverty and apathy and violence in our community. Individually we probably would not have succeeded, but together, we were able to make it through high school, college, and medical school. We are Dr. Rameck Hunt, Dr. Sampson Davis, and Dr. George Jenkins.
